IDEAS. CONNECTIONS. IMPACT.

More than a venue. A place to connect.

Lido Conference brings together architecture, hospitality and the experience of gathering in one destination — creating a setting for ideas to be shared, relationships to grow and moments to become memorable.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Lido

A destination on the Mombasa coast built around gathering. Conference and event floors, dining and café spaces, wellness and rooftop amenities and hotel apartments sit within one address, connected by a single arrival sequence.

The result is a venue that carries a day from a morning session to an evening on the roof without asking anyone to leave.

memories that outlast
the day.

ARCHITECTURAL CONCEPT

Architecture of place

The building takes its order from the shoreline. Deep frames and recessed balconies hold shade against the equatorial sun; stone and warm rendered surfaces carry the palette of the beach; every principal space is turned toward the horizon.

ARRIVAL

The experience begins here.

A landscaped approach narrows to a covered drop-off, then opens into the reception lobby. The sequence is deliberately quiet: planting, shade, stone underfoot, and the first view through the building.

CONFERENCE FACILITIES

Where ideas come together

The conference floor is built to change shape. Foldable partitions divide or open the main area; meeting rooms and executive lounges sit alongside for smaller sessions and quiet work.

FLEXIBLE CONFIGURATION

Plenary, theatre, boardroom or breakout — the same floor supports a single large session or several parallel ones, served by its own lobby.

LIDO CONFERENCE

EVENTS

Moments that matter.

The multi-purpose hall turns over from conference to banquet in an evening.

Restaurant and banquet seating carry the smaller gatherings, and the roof holds the last hour of the day.

INTERIOR EXPERIENCE

Designed to be experienced.

Interiors work in warm neutrals — timber, travertine, brushed metal, woven textile — lit indirectly so that daylight does the work. Spaces hand over to one another rather than announcing themselves: lobby to corridor, corridor to café, café to the quiet of the spa floor.

TRANSITIONS

Spaces to pause. Connect. Enjoy.

DINING & SOCIAL

Café, restaurant, lounge and salon sit between the working floors and the roof, holding the informal half of the day.

WELLNESS & AMENITIES

Well-being, built in.

The rooftop level carries the amenities: gym and yoga studio, spa and massage, sauna and steam, salon, and the pool deck below.

HOTEL & APARTMENT

A place to stay.

Living, kitchen-dining and private balconies face the water. Interiors follow the same palette as the public floors, in a quieter register.
